The Caribbean Tourism Organization Foundation Awards Record Number of Scholarships In 2007

by CTO News

Posted: Jul 11, 2007 22:07 UTC

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados - A record number of Caribbean nationals are to receive scholarships from the CTO Foundation, the scholarship programme of the Caribbean Tourism Organization, this year.

The Foundation is granting 10 scholarships to persons pursuing tourism/hospitality studies, the highest number ever awarded since the first scholarships were given in 1998.

Two of the 10 – Amanda Charles of Dominica and Diana Maldonado of the Dominican Republic - are among last year's scholarship winners who were promised further assistance this year if they achieved high levels of academic performance. Of the remaining eight, two are from Jamaica and the others are from Anguilla, Antigua & Barbuda, the Netherlands Antilles, St. Lucia, St. Vincent & the Grenadines and Trinidad & Tobago.

The students are all studying at the Masters level in various tourism disciplines at institutions both within and outside the Caribbean. They received scholarships ranging from US$2800 to US$8,000 – plus airline tickets on American Airlines for those studying in a country which the airline services.
